CELEBRATING THE ARTS IN HEADWATERS

Wed. Sept. 19 - Oct. 8, 2018

Join Headwaters Arts as we open our doors to one of Ontario's most respected Art Shows. This year Headwaters Arts main event, our Annual Juried Art Show & Sale, will return to the award-winning Alton Mill Arts Centre. Also, returning this year is an evening of the Blues for our music lovers and for the movie lovers, a special screening of a dramatic biopic!

Be sure to mark your calendars. Make it a day trip or stay overnight at one of the local resorts! There's plenty to see and do while in the Headwaters Region from viewing the magnificent fall colours, to trying great local foods, wines, craft beers and ciders and of course, the art!

All tickets available at:

Headwaters Arts Gallery

located in the Alton Mill Arts Centre, 1402 Queen St. W., Alton Caledon

THE BIG BLUES PARTY II

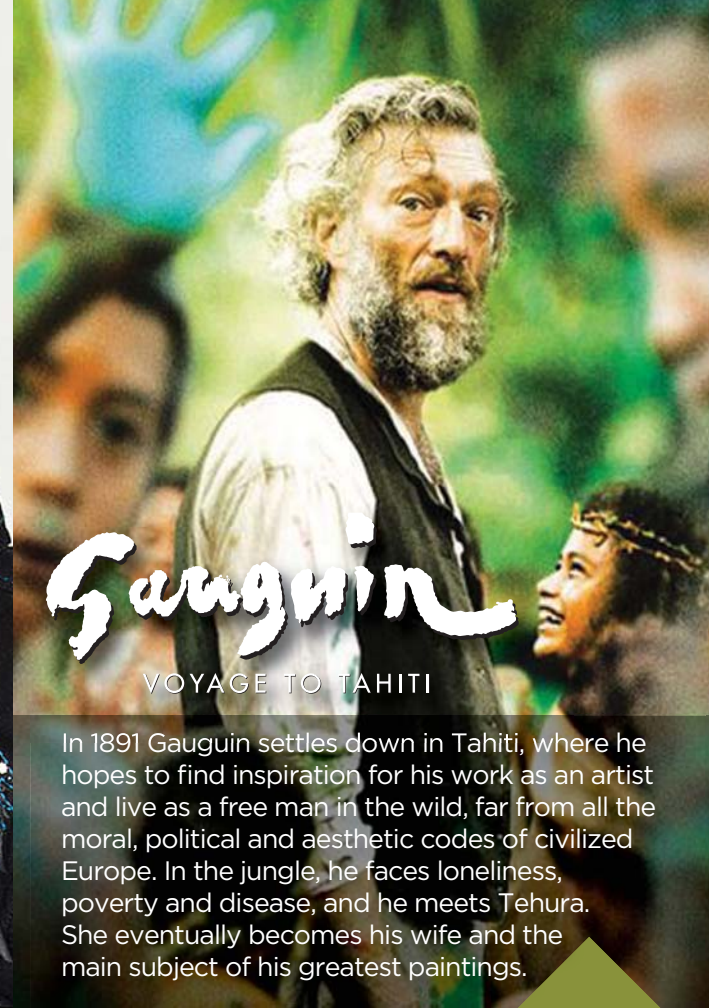

Friday September 28, @ 8pm

Headwaters Arts welcomes Larry Kurtz and The Lawbreakers. Larry is bringing his hot solo band The Lawbreakers to perform some great new original rockin' blues songs to the festival!

A fundraiser for Headwaters Arts located at the Alton Mill Arts Centre, Caledon.

Live Music, Dancing, Drinking and Eating!

Tickets: $35 (tax inclusive)

Gauguin

VOYAGE TO TAHITI

In 1891 Gauguin settles down in Tahiti, where he hopes to find inspiration for his work as an artist and live as a free man in the wild, far from all the moral, political and aesthetic codes of civilized Europe. In the jungle, he faces loneliness, poverty and disease, and he meets Tehura. She eventually becomes his wife and the main subject of his greatest paintings.

MONDAY NIGHT AT THE MOVIES

Monday October 1

Special screening of Gauguin: Voyage to Tahiti
Galaxy Cinemas, 85 Fifth Ave., Orangeville.
Doors open at 6:00pm. Film at 7:00pm
